Benefits of Certification	Students who complete FAA Part 147 programs have additional opportunities for possible future employment if they hold FAA certifications. These certifications are required for certain positions, while other positions in related fields may hire without certification.
Criminal and Misdemeanor Offenses	It is imperative to understand that employers across industries, the Federal Aviation Administration, and other agencies could deny employment, certification, licensure, or related benefits should you have a record of misdemeanor or felony activity. It is the student's responsibility to research whether any past offenses may prevent or could limit opportunities in the future. Students must keep his/her record clear of any issues. The College has no control over how past or future offenses impact employability or the student's ability to become certified or licensed.
Exam 1:	General Exam (1)
Requirement to sit for exam(s)	In most cases, the General FAA Knowledge exam can only be taken after the completion of either the General and Airframe or General and Powerplant portion of the FAA approved curriculum. Some schools, Spartan Tulsa and Inland campuses included, have applied for and received an exemption from the FAA to allow students to sit for the General Knowledge exam upon completion of the FAA approved General curriculum.
Special Requirements	Age 18
Fees	Additional fees are required and payable to the FAA approved Testing Centers. These fees are currently $165.00 for the General Knowledge Written exam; however, students who enrolled after March 1, 2019 may be eligible for one attempt of each exam at no cost if taken at the Spartan testing center and based on other requirements as detailed in the College Catalog.
